

category of the discretionary spending limits for fiscal year 1993 (as defined in section 601(a)(2) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974) for purposes of part C of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985.

(d) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—(1) Not less than 15 days before any obligation of funds under this section, the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of Energy, shall transmit to the committees of Congress named in subsection (e) a report on the proposed obligation. Each such report shall specify—

(A) the account, budget activity, and particular program from which the funds proposed to be obligated are to be derived and the amount of the proposed obligation; and

(B) the activities and forms of assistance for which the Secretary of Defense plans to obligate such funds.

(2) Not later than 30 days after the end of each quarter of fiscal years 1993 and 1994, the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Secretary of Energy, shall transmit to the committees of Congress named in subsection (e) a report of the activities to reduce the nuclear proliferation threat carried out under this section. Each report shall set forth the following:

(A) Amounts spent for such activities and the purposes for which they were spent.

(B) A description of the participation of the Department of Defense, and the participation of other government agencies in such activities.

(C) A description of the activities for which the funds were spent.

(e) COMMITTEES TO RECEIVE REPORT.—The committees of Congress referred to in subsections (d)(1) and (d)(2) are—

(1) the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives; and

(2) the Committee on Armed Services and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate.

SEC. 1206. SOVIET WEAPONS DESTRUCTION.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds—

(1) that programs established under the Soviet Nuclear Threat Reduction Act of 1991 (title II of Public Law 102-228) will contribute significantly to the destruction of weapons of mass destruction of the states of the former Soviet Union and the reduction of the threat from such weapons and the potential for their proliferation;

(2) that it is in the national security interests of the United States to continue to reduce the threats from the huge weapons arsenals of the former Soviet Union and to protect against the potential proliferation of these weapons and the materials removed from them, as well as the potential hazards resulting from the faulty storage of those weapons or materials; and

(3) that the threats to nuclear safety and security described in section 211 of the Soviet Nuclear Threat Reduction Act of 1991 (title II of Public Law 102-228; 105 Stat. 1693) remain of urgent concern and that additional resources are necessary to meet these threats, particularly in areas such as safe and secure storage of fissile material, dismantlement of missiles and launchers, and the destruction of chemical weapons.

(b) ADDITIONAL FUNDING.—(1) Section 221(a) of the Soviet Nuclear Threat Reduction Act of 1991 (title II of Public Law 102-228; 105 Stat. 1695) is amended by striking out “$400,000,000” and inserting in lieu thereof “$650,000,000”.

(2) Section 221(e) of such Act is amended—

(A) by inserting “for fiscal year 1992 or fiscal year 1993” after “under part B”;

(B) by inserting “for that fiscal year” after “for that program”; and

(C) by striking out “for fiscal year 1992” and inserting in lieu thereof “for that fiscal year”.

(c) TECHNICAL REVISIONS TO PUBLIC LAW 102-229.—Public Law 102-229 is amended—

(1) in section 108 (105 Stat. 1708), by striking out “contained in H.R. 3807, as passed the Senate on November 25, 1991” and inserting in lieu thereof “(title II of Public Law 102-228)”; and

(2) in section 109 (105 Stat. 1708)—

(A) by striking out “H.R. 3807, as passed the Senate on November 25, 1991” and inserting in lieu thereof “Public Law 102-228 (105 Stat. 1696)”; and

(B) by striking out “of H.R. 3807”.
