The Donald Price Facility was constructed in 1929 and opened in 1932. It was originally designed and first used to house youthful offenders. The building closed in 1992 when the John J. Moran Medium Security Facility was built and was reopened as the Donald Price Medium Security Facility for sentenced males in 1997. It is named for Correctional Officer Donald Price, killed in the line of duty in 1973.

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide clean, safe, secure, and humane housing for inmates assigned by the Department of Corrections' Classification process.

Through staff interaction and programming, to provide opportunities for inmates to develop usable skills in order to explore their own potential for becoming law-abiding productive citizens of the community.

To screen the behavior of inmates, to allow for further classification to more appropriate levels of confinement consistent with public safety.

Through team effort and continuous training, to achieve a high level of professionalism which will allow staff to be more effective role models in their interactions with inmates.

Many inmates take advantage of educational opportunities in the facility.
